Please, do not feed the foxes!

It can cause more harm than perceived good.

Harmful for foxes:

Foxes are hunters, by taking away their need to hunt, they can lose their survival skills. Like humans' foxes require a healthy, balanced diet. Human food is not part of that healthy, balanced diet.

Harmful for your pets:

Fox dropping can carry parasites, they can transmit both minor & severe illness. Foxes may prey on small, unattended pets. Bringing foxes into urban areas may also bring their predators like coyotes.

Harmful for people:

Foxes can carry many parasites and diseases, some can be transferred to humans. Anyone coming in contact with saliva of foxes should seek medical attention.

How Can I discourage foxes?

Do not feed foxes or place pet food outside. Ensure garbage, compost is not accessible to them.

Use bird feeders designed to keep feed off the ground.

Close off areas that foxes may want to create dens in such as sheds, patios etc.

Remember to look in your Mousetales and the towns face book page for some helpful tips on how to be prepared.

There are Emergency Preparedness Guide books at the PEI Office of Public Safety-Emergency Measures Organization in Charlottetown, the Souris Access Center and the Souris Town Hall. Feel free to stop by any of these locations to get a guide book.
